Advocate to Gov. Snyder on Behalf of Battered Women in Prison Who Deserve Clemency

The Michigan Women's Justice & Clemency Project in Ann Arbor filed clemency petitions with the Michigan Parole Board in 2017 asking for the release of several women incarcerated for defending their lives against intimate abusers. Judges and psychologists have written letters as well. The pleas have fallen on deaf ears, and silence is no longer an option! We must tell Gov. Rick Snyder that women victims of domestic violence do not belong in prison! Please add your voice by joining our postcard campaign and writing to Gov. Snyder. We will provide postcards and postage.

Former Oakland County Circuit Judge Jack McDonald

Share your voice on Saturday, April 14, in support of women imprisoned for defending their lives against domestic abusers. The postcard campaign takes place at The Momentum Center, 714 Columbus St., Grand Haven, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and will include refreshments. Meet former Oakland County Circuit Judge Jack McDonald who advocates for the release of 65-year-old Nancy Seaman after 14 years of incarceration.

Meet former Michigan prison psychologist Nels Thompson, who advocates for the many women he says do not deserve to be imprisoned for defending their lives.
